

Oregon Poetry Association
Call for Proposals
for the Fall 2018 OPA Conference

September 29-30, 2018
Valley River Inn, Eugene, OR

Submissions accepted between May 1 and June 1, 2018

Please submit a 1- to 2-page proposal that includes the following:

- Title of presentation
- Presenter name(s)
- Short bio(s) of 50 words or less
- List any A/V needs and what equipment you would supply.
- Explain what you would do in your session related to one of the categories below. Please include enough details or examples to explain your session proposal.

Proposal Session Categories:

- Workshop related to writing poetry: craft, generative exercises, publication ideas, entering contests, different styles of poetry, etc.
- Panel: include different viewpoints on a topic, theme, form
- Presentation: slide show, multimedia, history, etc.
- Other: Please describe in detail

All workshops, panels, etc. are scheduled for one hour. Please keep them focused.

Submit via email attachment (PDF format preferred), doc formats also accepted, or if unable, just copy and paste into the email body. Send to Shirley Marc, Conference Coordinator at "oregonpoets.conference@gmail.com" with subject line "OPA 2018 Conference Proposal."

Presenters will be notified of acceptance by June 16, 2018, via email.

Presenters receive free conference registration and Saturday lunch.

Any who need overnight accommodations will be able, as all conference attendees, to reserve a room at the special rate of $119 per night (plus taxes) at the Valley River Inn in Eugene Oregon. Parking is free.