

Poetry Alive!: New Beginnings

Saturday, March 24 from 1–3 p.m.
Ben Bones room at the Grants Pass branch

How do you start a poem? At this FREE workshop, participants will practice methods for creating a poem, strategies to use when the muse doesn't show up, and using every day themes and prompts to overcome writer's block.

“New Beginnings” is the first in a series of four quarterly poetry workshops sponsored by Oregon Poetry Association and Applegate Poets.

All workshops will be held at the Grants Pass branch of Josephine Community Library District. For more information, contact Oregon Poetry Association President Lisa Baldwin at 541-476-6671 or 541-761-3982, or contact the library at info@josephinelibrary.org.
